

Road to Major is a free, browser-based Counter-Strike pro-scene simulator. Players build teams with legends from every CS era, run a full career, and play out the road to the Major. The audience is exactly who a gaming brand wants to reach: active CS players who follow the competitive scene. The figures below cover the first 7 days since launch (June 10, 2026), and the platform is still ramping up.

WHY SPONSOR

The right audience

100% endemic to Counter-Strike. Your brand speaks to people who already live the game, with no wasted impressions.

Real engagement

Tens of thousands of matches and seasons played, not just drive-by clicks. People stay and keep playing.

Growth and virality

15k unique visitors in the first week and 1,193 player cards shared organically.

All figures verifiable via live analytics on request.
